

Richmond Telegram

21 September 1877

bought just at the right time, and are therefore prepared to give their friends such bargains as no merchant in Richmond ever could give before. The Eagle Cash Store may justly be called the "Old Reliable."

—The Valley Gem piano works, of Ripley, Ohio, have been merged into the Trayser piano works of this city, Mr. M. J. Chase and sixteen workmen coming over last Friday, and several others, and several car loads of material, having arrived since. They will now make in addition to the "Trayser" upright, the "Valley" gem scale, and the "Chase Square Grand." It is needless to add that the consolidation will prove mutually beneficial to the parties interested and add this new feature to Richmond's industries.

—Some fellow who was, perhaps, nearer heaven on top of it than he would have got had it fallen on top of him, drove into the city with a load of wood last Tuesday, that

Another

Last Friday a fellow named Conners, the solicitor, a girl named working at to take her

At 11 o'clock and asleep step, arrested station house

In accordance of the authority called after about 5 o'clock get him out

On going found that one of the had tied after securing

He was red-ribbon violated that he was